LPW FULL PRINT Membership is open to printmakers who are confident and competent in their practice. To apply first fill out and submit this form, upon receipt one of our Studio Team will call to discuss your application and to arrange an induction. The induction gives us the opportunity to introduce the studio, how it works for your chosen technique and our health and safety procedures; it also presents you the opportunity to demonstrate your competence. When your induction is scheduled we will talk with you about what you need to bring on the day. If at any stage in the application process the LPW team feel you would benefit from additional teaching prior to becoming a full print member they will discuss this with you.

Annual Membership costs £55 (£45 concessions) plus a £7 admin fee for new memberships. The induction, which is three hours, costs £40. Payment for both will be taken together at the induction, which is when your membership will begin. Please bear in mind when arranging your induction that new members must use the studio within three months. All members sign an agreement form and all membership is subject to a final approval by the LPW Board.
